A trip to the Ice Age
 Now, write your comic story in not fewer than 80 words here.

One night, when I was reading a book about Albert Einstein on the bed, he appeared suddenly. He wore a travel suit and spoke to me, "I am doing a time travel experiment. Would you join me for a trip to the Ice Age?" I was surprised because he was already dead in 1955.

Before I asked him, he said, "It is still 1940 from my time. Since I am testing the theory of relativity about time travel, I can meet people like you in 2022". He took out a time machine and set time to 100,000 B.C. Then a bright light sent us to the ancient Ice Age.

When I opened my eyes, I was scared because there was a fierce animal staring and roaring towards me. It was a Sabre-toothed tiger. Einstein calmed me and told me human and ancient animals could not touch each other because "Past" could not be changed even with time travel. Then I felt relaxed and found more creatures like Glyptodon and Mammoth. I was excited because these extinct animals were all around here.

After 15 minutes, I felt happy. When I woke up, I was still lying on the bed, I am looking forward to having another time travel with Einstein. I wish to travel to future by taking a spacecraft to visit Aries as I was born on 17th April.
