Editor's Note

Do you have some old socks you don't wear? If you do, turn to G09 to learn how to turn your old socks into a lovely kitten. The weather is getting cooler, and it's time to go for a barbecue. Goodies Family just went to barbecue, but Mr Octo got really upset. Turn to G10 to find out why.

THE story of Moses is one of the most famous in the Bible. Last summer, students and teachers from CCC Kei Fatt Primary School (Yau Tong) (中華基督教會基法小學心 [油塘]) put on The Prince of Egypt (埃及王子), a musical about Moses.

The Story of Moses

Moses is from a Hebrew family. At the time he was born, the Egyptian Pharaoh ordered all Hebrew newborns to be killed. They had to be drowned in the River Nile. Jochebed, Moses's mother, put baby Moses in a basket and let it float along the river. The Pharaoh's daughter spotted the basket. She saved little Moses. When he grew up, he led the Hebrews out of Egypt.

The cast

Performing on stage can be difficult. But it is a valuable experience that builds confidence. Some cast members tell us what they learnt from the show.

Cheung Wai-ping (Moses)

At first, Wai-ping was not used to the tough rehearsals. He wanted to give up. But he learnt he should have faith in himself, like Moses. So he put in the hard work and gave a wonderful performance.

Mak Yi-wah (Egyptian General)

As the cold-blooded general, Yi-wah had to scold and enslave others. Despite her cruel character, Yi-wah actually has a lovely voice and sings a song composed by her teacher. She enjoyed recording it in the studio. That was her favourite moment!

Mak Yi-ling (narrator)

Together with three other narrators, Yi-ling had to tell the story in an interesting way. She even had some minor roles in the musical. The four narrators added lots of laughs to the musical, which already had humorous dialogues and lively performances.

A CD of songs

The teachers composed some of the songs. Taking inspiration from their students, they wrote many meaningful songs that were later compiled into a CD. Even the illustration on the cover and the lyrics pages were drawn by students. The high quality songs made the show a great success and earned many positive reviews!
